About the Author:

Telley Lynnette Gadson introduces readers to some of the women and men from her journey. She does this to represent the culture, heritage, and history of the legacy of black prolific expression from the pulpit to the pew, from the altar to the alley, and from the pastor's study to the parking lot. Her message is whatever you do, whatever you go through, whatever you experience, don't forget who you are. This February, make African American History Month into something even more than a time to increase knowledge and foster pride of African American history.

Daily Prayer: Lord, please help us to remember the lessons from our history. As we reflect upon the past, your glory sustains us through it all. We celebrate as your preferred future for us is being revealed. In the name of Jesus Christ, we pray. Amen.
