

Young Joseph the Dreamer

1. Young Jo-seph the dream-er was sent o'er the bor-der-no
2. Young Jo-seph a - dopt-ed the land that he lived in; he 3. O God, in this land with its bound-aries and bor-ders, we say in the mat-ter-it was -n't his plan. He en-tered the helped it to pros-per, he helped it to thrive. He man-aged the thank you for dream-ers, our neigh-bors and friends. They came here as coun-try and as he got old - er, he worked with am - fields and the har - vests and store-rooms. When drought came his chil-dren, as sons and as daugh - ters; their pres - ence can -bi - tion to make it his land. In trou - ble, in pris - on, he skills kept his neigh-bors a - live. What joy for those peo - ple who tru - ly ac - com-plish your ends. We thank you for thou-sands of felt like a strang - er; with truth his com-pan-ion, he was-n't a - one day had wel-comed his gifts and his vi-sion, his tal-ent and sis - ters and broth - ers who seek ed - u - ca - tion, who love this good

Accompaniment: The Faith We Sing, no. 2008

Higher Key: The United Methodist Hymnal, no. 664

WORDS: Carolyn Winfrey Gillette, 2017 (Genesis 37-50)

MUSIC: Trad. Welsh melody

THE ASH GROVE

6 6 11.6 6 11 D

lone. He dreamed of suc - cess and he dreamed through the skill! O God, as a dream-er, he blessed his new land. For they are a bless-ing to us and to dan-ger, un - til he was wel-come in - to his new home. na-tion; he saved them - and so you ac-com-plished your will.

 oth-ers; may we reach to of - fer a wel - com - ing hand.